Porter Esq.

Insert the following for Tuesday the 5th day of Oct. 1926.

After Conforming with party on W 42 St. took information to office and then proceeded to Post Office had the following conference with One E. L. S. at Post Office, he stated that on Aug. 1' 1924 at 4:50 AM. I was Got of the train which arrived at the time stated and asked him where Prospect St was he informed them he did not know; you had better ask the Porter there they both pulled guns and started firing at the ground they then started off and he fired! He said coming to the morning thing dark he did not think he could identify the one he Call not shot, but said he would like to see the party we had in mind; and he may be able to pick him out, he was willing to try. he referred me to the Colored Porter which he said was at Orange Station of D.L.W.R.R. I found he was at Bloomfield Station of said road his name being "Goldie" Treadwell, he stated the following at 4:50 AM Train (1) man got off asked where Prospect St was I told him I did not know, they began shooting at my feet. I am sure or at least think I could identify the other man who ran away, but when has a gun held at his face he thinks about getting away, would he willing to go and see your party any time you wished me to.

He felt he could identify him, as he noticed them on the train "sure, as they both tryed limping in walking and both wore Caps, neither E.L.S. nor 'Goldie' knew Conductors name,

I went to D.L.&W.R.R. office and found chief Train Dispatcher, who gave the Conductors name being F.C. Hockenbury. on piece of paper in his own hand

g on slip of paper, also stated I could see him on 1st and 3d floor tomorrow Wednesday. I gave slip of paper to Mr. Faulkner.

Was informed that a man wearing black derby hat had called on these two Soldiers + Stack before I arrived, party unknown to me also could not find out where he was from.
